

Healthy Me

Requirements

1. Listen to a story about being healthy
2. Say three things you learned about being healthy.
3. Play an action game about being healthy.
4. Complete an art project about being healthy.

Supporting Answers

1. Listen to a story means you can either read your little lamb a book about being healthy, listen to a story from online, or watch a short story about being healthy. If you search for “free online books about being healthy preschool” several free online resources including youtube videos are available. Most support a vegetable-rich diet and exercise. You will have to search more carefully if vegetarianism or veganism is important to your presentation.

Book options:

- Read the book My Body Head Toe by Lisa Bullard.
- Read the book “From Head to Toe” by Eric Carle. It is a fun adventure with energetic animals that encourages kids to be healthy. This is the same author known for “The Very Hungry Caterpillar,” a book read and loved by THOUSANDS of pre-scholars.

One fun activity that may help you during this award is an interactive song:

Teaching idea: Act the song Head and Shoulders from Starfall

Head and Shoulders, Knees and Toes

Head and shoulders, knees and toes, knees and toes,

Head and shoulders, knees and toes, knees and toes,

And eyes and ears and mouth and nose,

Head and shoulders, knees and toes, knees and toes.

Fingers, elbows, hip and ankles, hip and ankles,

Fingers, elbows, hip and ankles, hip and ankles,

And hair and cheeks and chin and neck,

Fingers, elbows, hip and ankles, hip and ankles.

Procedure:

have the leader sing the song SLOWLY, touching each body part with the palms of both hands. Once the children see how to do it, they can join their leader. As the group gets more comfortable, feel comfortable to speed up the song (sing together or just have leader lead, depending on the children’s skills). Only go as fast as the children can accomplish successfully. Celebrate each new success!
