Supporting Answers

1. Before singing the song, listen to the children tell you about what types of people there are in THEIR families and in other families they know (daddy, mommy, siblings, grandparents, uncles & aunts, cousins, etc.). Remember that a “nuclear” family may be any combination of any of the above and even more options, including divorced and blended family units! As the adult leader you are responsible for treated each family type as equally valid and valuable to the child.

Youtube has a version of the song available - “With Jesus in the Family.”

With Jesus In the Family

With Jesus in the family, happy, happy home.

Happy, happy home. Happy, happy home.

With Jesus in the family, happy, happy home.

Happy, happy home.

With Mommy in the family...

With Daddy in the family...

With Grandpa in the family...

With Grandma in the family...

With Auntie in the family...

etc. (all possible relatives important to the children in your group)

2. Remember that reading (and listening to books read) is a life skill that will help your group of children succeed in their future. Help them make sure that reading and listening is a part of each of your meetings, for the sake of your group’s economic future and careers!

Bible stories about families include the story of Abraham & Sarah and Isaac, Samson and his parents, Joseph, Mary, and Jesus, and many more. Because most of these stories span a wide variety of biblical verses, it is important to find the children’s illustrated books that are written for young people that help you tell the story more smoothly than the Bible passage does.

3. Discussion from #1 can grow to include family heritage (where families are from), language, favorite foods, and much more. This is a special time for your group to share. Be sure to help them all experience the time, even if
